Strong bitters (over 4.9% - all colours)
Porters & Stouts (all strengths)
Speciality beers (added flavours)

8 SAIL Brewery, Heckington, Lincs.

 Blonde (4.0) From the brewery in the shadow of Britain's only eight-sailed windmill; gently hopped for a refreshing taste

 Windy Miller (4.6) Rich, smooth, dark stout, brewed with a generous amount of oat malt

AYR Brewing Co., Ayr

 Rabbies Porter (4.3) Robust, full-bodied porter with well-balanced caramel and fruity malt, and a slightly smoky finish

B&T Brewery, Shefford, Beds.

 SOS (Shefford Old Strong) (5.0) Rich, balanced mixture of fruity hops and malt is present right through to aftertaste; hoppy aroma

BAD (Brewing & Distilling) Co., Dishforth, N. Yorks.

 Love Over Gold (4.1) New World-style blonde ale, light and hoppy; well-balanced with grapefruit and grassy notes

BINGHAMS Brewery, Ruscombe, Berks.

 Space Hoppy IPA (5.0) Pale golden ale packed with hops to create a complex flavour and a long, bitter finish

 Vanilla Stout (5.0) Yes, we've got it, this year's Gold award winner for Supreme Champion at Champion Beer of Britain (CBOB) 2016 after winning the 'Speciality' category; infused with vanilla pods that complement the dark malts for a smooth-drinking dark stout

BLACK HOLE Brewery, Burton upon Trent, Staffs.

 Cosmic (4.2) Almost golden with an initial malt aroma; complex balance of malt and English hops gives lingering tastes of nuts, fruit, and a dry, hoppy bitterness

BLUE BEE Brewery, Sheffield, S. Yorks.

 Reet Pale (4.0) Had to be from Yorkshire – citrus flavours lead to a dry, bitter finish

CAMERONS Brewery, Hartlepool, Co. Durham

 A-hop-alyse Now (4.3) A Camerons 'Craft' beer with citrus aroma and satisfying full hop flavour from the Cascade, Chinook and Fuggles hops

 Thirst Blood (4.3) Seasonal American red rye beer with grapefruit notes from the Citra hops

CHARNWOOD Brewery, Loughborough, Leics.

Salvation (3.8) From a family-run brewery in a former mozzarella factory; American hops give tropical fruit, citrus and floral flavours and a clean bitter finish

DANCING DUCK Brewery, Derby

Ay Up (3.9) 'Ay up me duck' is a traditional local greeting worthy of this pale session ale; subtle malt and floral notes are matched with citrus hops, leaving a slightly dry finish

Indian Porter (5.0) Modern twist on a classic style, 'smoky bonfire flavours with a spicy hop and pleasant warming afterglow'

DARKTRIBE Brewery, East Butterwick, Lincs.

Captain Floyd (3.9) Brewed by a former mariner in a pub called the Dog & Gun, a pale, almost golden, session beer

DOWNTON Brewery Co., Downton, Wilts.

Quadhop (3.9) Well-loved session beer, initially hoppy with some fruit notes, but a distinct strong hoppy aftertaste,

ELGOOD'S Brewery, Wisbech, Cambs.

Indian Summer (4.8) First brewed for Peterborough Beer Festival in 2010, now an annual late summer brew; bittersweet taste becomes heartier the more you drink

ENVILLE Ales, Enville, Staffs.

Nailmaker Mild (3.6) Well-defined hop aroma and underlying sweetness give way to a dry finish

Czechmate Saaz (4.2) Golden lager-style beer, but with more taste and lasting bitterness

FIREHOUSE Brewery, Manby, Lincs.

FGB (3.9) From a tiny brewery on a former airfield, a traditional English pale ale using Target and Challenger hops, pale and chocolate malts; no public explanation for the name

Woodman Pale Ale (4.4) Fruity and bittersweet with a dry, hoppy finish

FRANKLINS Brewing Co., Bexhill-on-Sea, E. Sussex

English Garden (3.8) Award-winning gloriously golden session ale with a rich hop aroma, first brewed in a garden in, er, England!

FROG ISLAND Brewery, Northampton

Croak & Stagger (5.6) Cask from bottled beer specialists, initial honey/fruit aroma is overpowered by malt and chocolatey sweetness, but a bittersweet finish

GREAT OAKLEY Brewery, Tiffield, Northants.

Welland Valley Mild (3.6) Dark traditional mild, full of flavour; winner of regional SIBA awards

HADRIAN BORDER Brewing Co., Newburn, Tyne and Wear

Northumbrian Gold (4.5) Light golden ale with a biscuit malt flavour, countered with floral and aromatic hops

HAMMERPOT Brewery, Poling, W. Sussex

Brighton Belle (4.6) Pale amber bitter with fresh floral hop notes, spicy orange and crisp grapefruit tastes, and a hint of caramel

HAWKSHEAD Brewery, Staveley, Cumbria

Bitter (3.7) Well-balanced, thirst-quenching beer with fruit and hop aromas, leading to a lasting bitter finish; joint Bronze Medal in the Bitter category at CBOB 2016

HEAVY INDUSTRY Brewing, Henllan, Denbighs.

7 7 (4.9) Big amber IPA using pale and crystal malts, Columbus and Cascade hops, dry-hopped with 2 more during conditioning, giving hints of Seville marmalade and pepperiness; won Gold in the Strong Bitter category at CBOB 2016.

HIGH WEALD Brewery, East Grinstead, W. Sussex

Charcoal Burner (4.3) Traditional English stout; roasted malts bring a rich flavour with velvety smoothness from generous quantities of oats

HOLDEN'S Brewery, Woodsetton, W. Midlands

Golden Glow (4.4) Well-established pale golden beer with a subtle hop aroma, gentle bitter sweetness and a light hoppiness

HOP STUDIO, Elvington, N. Yorks.

Porter (4.3) From a 10-barrel 'brewlab' that produces seasonal and experimental beers, an almost black beer with strong chocolate and some vanilla notes

HOWARD TOWN Brewery, Glossop, Derbys.

Super Fortress (4.4) Tasty, well-balanced premium chestnut bitter with malty caramel notes and fruity hops

JOULE'S Brewery, Market Drayton, Shrops.

Slumbering Monk (4.5) Full-bodied with complex malt and nut character, a bright copper ale with hints of caramel and a round soft smoothness

KENDRICK'S Brewing, Willey, Warwicks.

1823 Mild (3.5) From a farm brewery and visitor centre set in the Warwickshire countryside; most of their beers have rugby-related names – this full-bodied dark mild 'commemorates the year of the birth of rugby'

KEW Brewery, East Sheen, Gtr. London (all beers unfiltered/unfined, so may be hazy)

Petersham Porter (4.2) Rich, complex porter with a blend of 5 malts, gently dry-hopped to complement the toffee, chocolate, coffee and liquorice flavours

Pagoda No.5 Pale (4.6) Fifth in the series, brewed with the new 'tropical fruit' hop Olicana, plus a little Chinook – expect mango, grapefruit and passionfruit flavours and aroma

Join The Kew IPA (5.7) 5 new UK-grown hops produce a heady mix of grapefruit, lychee, berry and mango flavours and aroma

LINCOLNSHIRE Brewing Co., Lincoln

Friendly Rottweiler (4.5) Named in honour of the brewer's dog (apparently named Guinness!), a light crisp ale with a subtle hoppy taste

MILLIS Brewing Co., South Darenth, Kent

Curiously Dark Mild (3.6) A roasted malt flavour and some background fruit notes lead to a dry aftertaste

OAKHAM Ales, Peterborough, Cambs.

Citra (4.2) This has now out-stripped JHB as their best-selling beer; characteristic grapefruit and peach flavours give way to a long, dry aftertaste

OLD DAIRY Brewery, Tenterden, Kent

Blue Top (4.8) Rich and full-bodied pale brown ale with a long bittersweet finish

OLDERSHAW Brewery, Barkston Heath, Lincs.

- Heavenly Blonde (3.8) Pale blonde session beer packed with zesty tropical fruits with a crisp, dry finish
THE PARK Brewery, Kingston, Gtr. London (beers unfiltered/unfined, so may be hazy)
- Park Porter (4.2) Interesting new brew, a sweet and silky milk porter
- Gallows Gold (4.4) Well-rounded and fruity golden ale, dry-hopped with Simcoe giving mango and pineapple aromas
PHOENIX Brewery, Heywood, Gtr. Manchester
- Monkeytown Mild (3.9) Dark mild with fruitiness, some bitterness and a smooth full-malt finish
- Double Gold (5.0) Full-bodied premium bitter, hints of caramel, with a crisp bitter finish
PROSPECT Brewery, Standish, Gtr. Manchester
- Nutty Slack (3.9) Dark brown mild, creamy and chocolatey on the palate, malty and moderately bitter finish
REUNION Ales, Feltham, Gtr. London
- Opening Gambit (3.8) Mellow well-balanced session ale; a hoppy nose is followed by a smooth, malty mouthfeel with hints of honey; hoppy bitterness leads to a dry finish
- Beardtongue (4.5) Dark ruby red ale with red berry, pine and caramel notes, formerly marketed as Frost Fair
- Incredible Pale Ale (5.0) Dry-hopped pale ale with a resinous, fruity nose and light body REVOLUTIONS Brewing Co., Whitwood, W. Yorks.
- Cocker (3.9) Pale brown Yorkshire Ale, fruity with moderate levels of bitterness; all their beers have a musical connotation
ROBINSONS Brewery, Stockport, Cheshire
- Dizzy Blonde (3.8) Straw-coloured summer ale with distinctive hop aroma, light and refreshing with a crisp, dry finish
SALOPIAN Brewing Co., Hadnall, Shropshire
- Shropshire Gold (3.8) Despite the name, a light copper-coloured ale with an unusual blend of body and dryness; joint Bronze Medal in the Bitter category at CBOB 2016
- Lemon Dream (4.5) You want citrus flavours? Well, you've got it – fresh lemons flavour this mainly wheat-malt golden beer SALTAIRE Brewery, Shipley, W. Yorks.
- Triple Chocoholic (4.8) Creamy, dark brown chocolate stout with a chocolate aroma and dry, bitter finish; Bronze award in the 'Speciality' category at CBOB 2016
- SONNET 43 Brew House, Coxhoe, Co. Durham
- Impressment (American Pale Ale) (5.4) Elizabeth Barratt Browning (How do I love thee?) was from Coxhoe, but would not have recognised this beer, brewed with 6 bold American whole-leaf hops, a bronze-coloured ale with a spicy and peppery aroma and flavour
STEWART Brewing, Loanhead, Midlothian
- Pentland IPA (3.9) Hoppy session ale with a dry bittersweet taste and dry lingering aftertaste STONEHENGE Ales, Netheravon, Wilts.

Spire Ale (3.8) Golden session bitter; well-rounded aftertaste has a discernible fruity balance

SURREY HILLS Brewery, Dorking, Surrey

Shere Drop (4.2) Multi-award-winning beer including Gold award in the Best Bitter category at CBOB 2016; a hoppy ale with some balancing malt and slight fruity sweetness

Collusion (5.2) Brewed in collaboration with and specially for Cobbett's Real Ales off-licence and micro pub in Dorking, but we (and a few free houses) have it; a highly-rated bright gold beer with initial sweetness giving way to a sharp lasting bitterness

SWANNAY Brewery, Swannay by Evie, Orkney

Dark Munro (4.0) From the former Highland Brewing Co., intense roast tastes are followed by summer fruits; strong roast malt continues into the aftertaste

TIMOTHY TAYLOR & Co., Keighley, W. Yorks.

Boltmaker (4.0) The brewery's former Best Bitter has become multi-award-winning since renaming after a local pub, incl. Gold award in the Bitter category at CBOB 2016 (previously won in 1994) - not quite following its CBOB 2014 Supreme Champion Gold award

THAMES SIDE Brewery, Staines upon Thames, Surrey

Heron Bitter (3.7) Nice easy-drinking English ale, clear copper-coloured with a strong bitter finish

White Swan Pale Ale (4.2) Hoppy New World-style pale ale, deep gold/amber coloured, plenty of fruity notes

TRING Brewery Co., Tring, Herts.

Side Pocket for a Toad (3.6) Straw-coloured ale with citrus notes and floral aroma, and a crisp, dry finish

Death or Glory (7.2) A true strong, dark and aromatic barley wine, awarded Bronze Medal at CBOB 2016 after winning last January's Champion Winter Beer of Britain in the Barley Wines/Strong & Old Ales category. Note: sorry, max. half-pint per serving!

TRYST Brewery, Larbert, Falkirk

Carronade (4.2) Prize-winning golden yellow pale ale bursting with citrus flavours from a combination of American hops and Scottish malt

TWICKENHAM Fine Ales, Twickenham, Gtr. London

Sundancer (3.7) Light zesty ale with citrus notes dominating; finish is bitter but balanced by biscuity sweetness

Autumn Red (4.4) Spicy red ale with fruity undertones and hints of caramel, floral aroma from Williamette hops with a clean lasting bitter finish

Coconut Porter (6.0) Specially casked strong London porter with British hops and malt, but toasted coconut and cocoa nibs are added for a very drinkable beer with a sweet edge.

Hopfen Weisse (6.5) Specially casked Bavarian--style wheat beer but hopped with Huell Melon hops recently cultivated in north Germany

WANTSUM Brewery, Hersden, Kent

Black Prince (3.9) Rich full-bodied Kentish mild, smooth on the palate with subtle hop notes; SIBA award winner

Turbulent Priest (4.4) Full-bodied bitter with deep fruity aromas and coffee and chocolate notes on a sweet malt base; New World hops give the bitterness

WELBECK ABBEY Brewery, Welbeck, Notts.

Portland Black (4.5) Rich, dark porter ale with roast malt aroma and taste throughout, and a balanced bitterness
